

Spring Meeting 16th March 2018

Wynyard Hall

Provisional Programme

Time	Speaker	Talk
0830-0930	Registration & Coffee
0930-1015	Prof Greet Van de Berghe (Belgium)	Endocrinology and metabolism of critical illness: past, present and future
1015-1045	Dr Chris Snowden (Newcastle)	Perioperative physicians in the UK- an update
1045-1115	Coffee
1115-1145	Prof John Simpson (Newcastle)	VAP rapid- how does it help me on a ward round?
1145-1215	Prof Davies (Durham)	Hope and care at the edge of death
1215-1245	Prof Kathryn Maitland (London)	A life in Global Health
1245-1400	Lunch & Posters
1400-1445	Prof Mervyn Singer (London)	Novel biomarkers, the early identification of sepsis, and the future of individualised critical care
1445-1515	Dr Dale Gardiner (Nottingham)	Metabolic Acidosis- bedside maths for everyone
1515-1600	Prof Kathryn Maitland (London)	Reflections on air & water-“What we know, and what we think we know – how unexpected results can help clinical practice”.
1600	NEICS AGM

Approved 5 CPD Points by RCoA

Register at: <https://www.neics.org.uk/>